(3) Before passing any order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the district judge may, if he thinks fit, examine the officer making the application.

(4) At the same time as he passes an order under sub-section (1), the district judge shall issue to the industrial concern a notice accompanied by copies of the order, the application and the evidence, if any, recorded by him calling upon it to show cause on a date to be specified in the notice why the ad interim order of attachment should not be made absolute or the injunction confirmed.

(5) If no cause is shown on or before the date specified in the notice under sub-sections (2) and (4), the district judge shall forthwith make the ad interim order absolute and direct the sale of the attached property or transfer the management of the industrial concern to the Financial Corporation or confirm the injunction.

(6) If cause is shown, the district judge shall proceed to investigate the claim of the Financial Corporation in accordance with the provisions contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), in so far as such provisions may be applied thereto.

(7) After making an investigation under sub-section (6), the district judge may—

- (a) Confirm the order of attachment and direct the sale of the attached property;
- (b) Vary the order of attachment so as to release a portion of the property from attachment and direct the sale of the remainder of the attached property;
- (c) Release the property from attachment;
- (d) Confirm or dissolve the injunction; or
- (e) transfer the management of the industrial concern to the Financial Corporation or reject the claim made in this behalf.

Provided that when making an order under clause (c), the district judge may make such further orders as he thinks necessary to protect the interests of the Financial Corporation and may apportion the costs of the proceedings in such manner as he thinks fit:

Provided further that unless the Financial Corporation intimates to the district judge that it will not appeal against any order releasing any property from attachment, such order shall not be given effect to, until the expiry of the period fixed under sub-section(9) within which an appeal may be preferred or, if an appeal is preferred. Unless the High Court otherwise directs until the appeal is disposed of.

(8) An order of attachment or sale of property under this section shall be carried into effect as far as practicable in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) for the attachment or sale of property in execution of a decree as if the Financial Corporation were the decree holder.

(9) Any party aggrieved by an order under sub-section (5) or sub-section (c) may, within thirty days from the date of the order, appeal to the High Court, and upon such appeals the High Court may, after hearing the parties pass such orders thereon as it thinks proper.

(10) Where proceedings for liquidation in respect of an industrial concern have commenced before an application is made under sub-section (1) of section 31, nothing in this section shall be constructed as giving to the Financial Corporation any preference over the other creditors of the industrial concern not conferred on it by any other law.

(11) The functions of a district judge under this section shall, in a presidency town, be exercised by the principal judge of the City civil Court, if any, having jurisdiction or by the High Court.

Section 33. Funds of the Financial Corporation

(1) Every Financial Corporation shall have its own fund, and all receipts of the Financial Corporation shall be carried thereto and all payments by the Corporation shall be made therefrom.

(2) All moneys belonging to the fund shall be deposited in the Reserve Bank or with any agency of the Reserve Bank other than a Government treasury or in a scheduled bank in consultation with the Reserve Bank.

Section 34. Investment of funds

The Financial Corporation may invest its fund in the securities of the Central Government or of any State Government.

Section 35. Disposal of profits

(1) The Financial Corporation shall establish a reserve fund.

(2) After making provision for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation of assets and all other matters which are usually provided for by banking companies the Financial Corporation may out of its net annual profits declare a dividend.

Provided that for so long as the reserve fund is less than the paid-up share capital of the Financial Corporation and until there has been repaid to the State Government such sum if any, as that Government may have paid under guarantee given in pursuance of section 6, or under any guarantee given in pursuance of sub-section (2) of section 7, the rate of such dividend shall not exceed the rate guaranteed by the State Government under section 6.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no dividend paid under this section shall under any circumstances exceed the rate of five percent.per annum and if, in respect of any financial year after the reserve fund becomes equal to the share capital of the Financial Corporation, there is a surplus in the net profits after declaring a dividend at the rate specified in this sub-section, such surplus shall be paid to the State Government.

Section 36. General meetings

(1) A general meeting (hereinafter referred to as the annual general meeting) shall be held annually at a place in the State where there is an office of the Financial Corporation within two months from the date on which the annual accounts of the Financial Corporation are closed, and a general meeting may be convened by the Board at any other time.

(2) The shareholder present at the annual general meeting shall be entitled to discuss the annual accounts, the report of the Board on the working of the Financial Corporation throughout the year and the auditor's report on the annual balance-sheet and accounts.

Section 37. Audit

(1) The affairs of the Financial Corporation shall be audited by not less than two auditors duly qualified to act as auditors of companies under sub-section (1) of section 144 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913), one of whom shall be appointed by the State Government in consultation with the Controller and Auditor-General of India and the other elected in the prescribed manner by the parties mentioned in clauses (c) and (d) of sub-section (3) of section 4, and such remuneration as the State Government may fix shall be paid to the auditors by the Financial Corporation.

(2) Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet of the Financial Corporation, and it shall be his duty to examine it, together with the accounts and vouchers relating, and every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Financial Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Financial Corporation and may in relation to such accounts examine any director or officer of the Financial Corporation.

(3) The auditors shall make a report to the shareholders upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts, and in every such report they shall state whether in their opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state affairs of the Financial Corporation, and in case they had called for any explanation or information from the Board, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

(4) The State Government may, in consultation with the Controller and Auditor-General of India at any time issue directions to the auditors requiring them to report to it upon the adequacy of measures taken by the Financial Corporation for the protection of its shareholders and creditors or upon the sufficiency of their procedure in auditing the affairs of the financial Corporation and may enlarge or extend the scope of the audit or direct that a different procedure in audit be adopted, or direct that any other examination be made by the auditors, if in its opinion public interest so requires.

(5) The Financial Corporation shall send a copy of every report of the auditors to the Controller and Auditor-General of India at least one month before it is placed before the shareholders.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, the controller and Auditor-General of India may, either of his own motion or on a request received in this behalf from a State Government, undertake such audit and at such times as he may consider necessary:

Provided that where the State Government is required to make any payment on account of the guarantee given by it under section 6 or sub-section (2) of section 7, as the case may be, such audit shall be undertaken by the Controller and Auditor-General of India.

(7) Every audit report under sub-section (6) shall be forwarded to the State Government and the Government shall cause the same to be laid before the Legislature of the State.

Section 38. Returns

(1) The Financial Corporation shall furnish a statement, in the prescribed form, of its assets and liabilities as at the close of business on the last Friday of each month or, if that day is a public holiday under the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881 (XXVI of 1881), as at the close of business on the preceding working day to the State Government and to the Reserve Bank within ten days from the date which the statement relates.

(2) The Financial Corporation shall furnish in the prescribed form to the State Government and to the Reserve Bank once every three months, or as frequently as the State Government or the Reserve Bank may require, a statement showing the classification of its loans and investments and of all loans guaranteed by it and underwriting agreements entered into by it.

(3) The Financial Corporation shall furnish to the State Government and to the Reserve Bank within three months of the close of each financial year a statement in the prescribed form of its assets and liabilities as at the close of that year, together with a profit and loss account for the year, the auditors report and a report of the working of the Financial Corporation during the year and copies of the said statement, account and reports shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall also be laid before the Legislature of the State.
